

Commercial waste
includes non-recyclable waste.

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aluminium grill trays • Ceramic tableware and porcelain • Dishcloths • Foam materials • Foils (soiled, glued) • Glass scraps • Hygiene products • Medical products • Paper and cardboard (very dirty, coated) • Paper handkerchiefs • Photographs • Receipts and faxes (thermal paper) • Rubber • Textiles • Toilet paper • Vacuum cleaner bag • Video cassettes • Wallpaper residues • Wood residues (small parts, dirty, glued) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asbestos • Ash • Batteries and lithiumion accumulators • Construction waste • Drink cartons • Energy-saving, LED-, fluorescent- and halogen lamps • Food waste • Garden waste (on a larger scale) • Glass packaging for food such as bottles and jars • Infectious waste (e.g. medical gloves, medical syringe) • Insulation material (mineral wool) • Old electrical equipment (Computer, kettle, keyboard or data carriers) • Paints, varnishes and oils • Paper and cardboard (unpolluted) • Plastic and metal objects (e.g. chairs, car parts) • Pressure vessels such as gas cylinders, fire extinguisher or aerosol cans (completely emptied) • Printer cartridges • Roofing felt • Scrap metal • Stoneware (on a larger scale) |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Food waste
includes all organic kitchen waste

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fruit and vegetable waste • Residues of prepared animal products such as meat, sausage, blood, poultry waste, eggs, milk, bacon, fish and bones (smaller than 15cm) • Tea and coffee residues and tea bags • Expired and unpackaged food | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Butcher's shop waste • Plants and green cuttings • Raw bones • Packaged food • Cigarettes and ashes |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Packaging – and other items – made of metal, plastic and composit goes in the recycling bin.

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aluminium foil and aluminium shell • Blister packaging (e.g. of medicines) • Commodities made of plastic, metal and composite materials such as: E.g. bowls, tools, cutlery, screws • Drink cans (without deposit) • Drink cartons • Yoghurt pots with separated aluminium lid • Food tins (empty) • Crown caps • Plastic packaging of food products with separated lid • Meal trays from ready-to-eat meals • Other plastic packaging, foils, bottles, cups, shopping bags, bags • Spray cans (emptied) • Styrofoam packaging • Tubes with separated lid | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ash • Batteries and lithiumion accumulators • Construction waste • Blue and black waste bags • CDs, diskettes, DVDs • Insulation material • Old electrical equipment (Computer, keyboard, kettle, or data carriers) • Fluorescent, LED-, energy-saving- and halogen lamps • Garden waste • Glass packaging for food such as bottles and jars • Rubber • Wood remnants • Toilet paper and Hygiene products • Plastic and metal objects (e. g. chairs, car parts) • Dust sheets • Not completely emptied packaging • Paper and cardboard • Foam materials • Shoes • Food waste • Textiles • Video and audio cassettes |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Board, paper and cardboard packaging go in the paper bin.

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Envelopes (with or without plastic viewing window) • Roll bag (with or without plastic viewing window) • Books (without plastic cover) • Office paper • Egg cartons • Brochures and catalogues • Cardboard and paper packaging • Newspapers and magazines | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Photographs • Toilet paper • Receipts and faxes (thermal paper) • Kitchen roll paper • Napkins • Very dirty paper • Wallpapers • Tissues |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|